

Apply today for a

FREE Community of Practice: Supporting Inclusion

PLUS! Get a $600 Inclusion Shopping Pass!

Dates:

- Tuesday, February 10 | 6–8 pm
- Tuesday, February 24 | 6–8 pm
- Tuesday, March 10 | 6–8 pm
- Tuesday, March 17 | 6–8 pm

To be eligible for this opportunity, sites must be licensed Child Care Centers or Family Child Care Homes operating in Contra Costa County which do not currently participate in the Quality Matters program.

For questions, please contact:

Elida Treanor
etreanor@first5coco.org | (925) 771-7319

Each session is facilitated by Lisa, an inclusion expert, and includes both content learning and opportunities for discussion between the participants.

If at least one staff person from a site or program completes the CoP, their site will be eligible for a $600 Inclusion Shopping Pass that can be used to purchase supplies.

The Pass will be coordinated with the Site Supervisor / Director / FCCH Owner. Only 1 Pass per site per year (7/1/25-6/1/26).

Lisa Kaplan Shaanan, MS OTR/L TMHP

Lisa Kaplan Shaanan, MS OTR/L TMHP, is a thought leader and innovator in early childhood education and therapeutic intervention. Her work includes professional learning, coaching, advocacy work, therapy, and consulting to individuals, families and institutions. Lisa is the founder and lead educator of Early Education Equity. For 25+ years, Lisa's work focused on equity for children from a wide range of ethnic, cultural, racial, linguistic, and socio-economic backgrounds and diverse abilities. She currently works as an Adjunct Professor at Santa Fe Community College.

SPACE IS LIMITED. APPLY TODAY.

bit.ly/inclusion-application-2026

