

2nd Annual Ready Kids East County Resource Fair

CONNECT, CELEBRATE, & PLAY

Be part of a fun, joyful, family-friendly day dedicated to connecting and celebrating Black and African American families.

SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 2026 * 11AM-2PM

Marina Community Center, 340 Marina Blvd, Pittsburg, 94565

CONNECT & DISCOVER

Meet organizations and child care programs who offer culturally relevant programming for African American families with young children in East County.

FUN FOR ALL AGES

Enjoy an afternoon of family-friendly activities & entertainment for babies, kids, and adults:

- ★ Inflatable Bouncy House
- ★ Balloon Artist & Face Painting
- ★ Free lunch from Taco Tone
- ★ Drumming performance
- ★ Indoor wonderland with arts & crafts
- ★ Hourly giveaways & raffles

HANDS-ON PLAY ZONE

Explore First 5 California's Stronger Starts Roadshow, a sensory adventure where children learn through play while adults gain tools to support their little ones.

THE ROLLING READER

Meet The Rolling Reader, the Library's all-electric early literacy van, with storytimes, free books, and activities that build early literacy, motor skills, and STEM learning.

FREE SHIRT & TOTE BAG

for the FIRST 100 families, designed by local artists Maya Ealey, and The Kreativ Studio, Inc.

Looking for child care?

Connect with Black-led child care programs that nurture, educate, and empower young learners. These providers offer culturally rooted care and a deep commitment to supporting children and families.

HELP US SPREAD THE WORD

Know a family who would love this event? Share with your friends, neighbors, and families with young children!

RSVP TODAY!

bit.ly/resource-fair-2026

